Larry:

Appreciate the opportunity to talk to you about our career trainee needs. From our discussion I'm hopeful that we can establish some lines to military officers leaving the service. If it works we will be able to reap the benefit of your investment.

Thanks for taking the time and also establishing the liaison with [redacted]. Please give me a shout if you think things are going awry or not in the direction that is helpful to you folks. We don't want to bite the hand that feeds us.

You may recall that I mentioned the need for staffing the National Intelligence Emergency Support Office. We have forwarded to James Juliana an expression of our needs and we would be grateful if you would keep us in mind, particularly when the summer assignments of personnel transpire.

Again my thanks and best wishes for continued good luck.

Sincerely,

John N. McMahon
